Bill of Rights Foldable Directions

- ❖ Fold the handout into thirds so that the two flaps cover the text in the middle of the page.
- ❖ Cut slits in the blank sections so that the cuts match up with the lines between each of the ten amendments. If you would prefer, you can make four evenly spaced cuts to make five flaps.
- ❖ The order of the amendments goes from the top of the page to the bottom with the first five on the left and amendments 6-10 on the right.
- ❖ On the outside of each flap, write the number of the amendment it covers and draw a simple picture that represents the main idea(s) of that amendment. Try to use Roman numerals!
- ❖ On the inside of the flap, rewrite the amendment in YOUR OWN WORDS – a summary of the rights protected in each amendment that makes sense to you.
- ❖ Don't forget to write your name and class period on the back of your completed foldable.
