

North America

LOCATION & PLACE REVIEW/PREVIEW

Please draw and label the following 36 physical features on your map. Use the physical map located on page 32-33 of the text to complete your map thoroughly and accurately.

Appalachian Mountains	Columbia River	Lake Champlain
Cascade Range	Colorado River	Lake Erie
Rocky Mountains	Hudson River	Lake Huron
Sierra Nevada	Mississippi River	Lake Michigan
Black Hills	Missouri River	Lake Ontario
Ozark Plateau	Ohio River	Lake Superior
Colorado Plateau	Platte River
	Rio Grande	Chesapeake Bay
Mojave Desert		Gulf of Mexico
Sonoran Desert	Mississippi River Delta	(where are deltas found?)
Coastal Plain	Central Lowland	Great Basin	Great Plains
Central Valley	Cape Hatteras	Cape Cod	The Everglades
Atlantic Ocean	Pacific Ocean	(these are only on the map in the text)

Answer the following questions thoroughly and thoughtfully.

- Name the country that borders the United States to the north.
- Name the country that borders the United States to the south.
- The Atlantic Ocean separates North America from which continents?
- The Pacific Ocean separates North America from which continents?
- Name the mountain range that is the continental divide of North America.
- Name the river that traditionally divides the eastern United States from the western United States.
- What is the name used to collectively describe Lakes Erie, Huron, Michigan, Ontario and Superior?
- In which direction do all rivers flow?
- List at least five ways that humans use water to support or improve their lives.