

"TEENS AT WAR" questions

1. Based on the accounts you just read, were all young people eager to participate in the Revolutionary War? Explain why or why not using examples. Choose one specific example and describe what you would have done if faced with a similar situation.
2. Describe at least three (3) ways in which women contributed to the Revolutionary effort. Explain which one of these roles you felt was the most important in helping the American colonists to victory.
3. According to the eyewitness accounts (primary sources) you just read, how do you think these young people felt about the violence they viewed and experienced? Explain how you might have reacted.
4. Explain why colonists reacted differently to the war. Why were some patriots while others were loyalists? Which of these accounts was the most "personal" example of war in your opinion?
